It is an arduous task that the Hartford Home Laundry is the best in the State. If you want good work, take it at E. W. Wagon, 120 E. Main street, near the drug store. GRANT'S GRIFFIN, Art.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Kate Graham, administrator of James Graham, by her attorneys, Messrs. Glass & Weddell and R. R. Weddell, filed in the Ohio Circuit Court last week against the C. O. & H. W. Railroad, asking damages in the sum of $10,000 for the killing of James Graham, killed by said railroad, on the 24th day of May, 1904.

Word has been received by the Commercial Club that the engineers in charge of Rough River have recommended the erection by the Government of two temporary dams, which will make navigation of the stream possible while the permanent dam is being provided for. It is probable that work will be begun upon the temporary structures at an early date.

Hilly Simmons was shot and badly wounded at Horton last Sunday morning by a peddler whose name we were unable to ascertain. It seems that Simmons and the peddler had some words over the peddler selling his goods on the barrens grounds at Horton Saturday afternoon which very greatly enraged the peddler and Sunday morning the two men met again with worse result. Simmons was doing as well as could be expected at last count.

Albert Maddox, who was arrested last Wednesday night by Sheriff J. F. W. Wagon, charged with interfering with freight traffic on the Williams Cove Company's switch near McHenry, was brought before Judge John P. Morton last night for an examination and was charged and after hearing the evidence the court held him to answer to the charge of interfering with the freight traffic on the Williams Cove Company's switch near McHenry, which he had been fined at $100, and which he gave and was released from imprisonment.

BEAVER DAM NOTES.

July 3, 1904.—A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Austin died at her home near this place since our last report of flu. She was a noted and lovable child, and the parents have the sympathy of all.

(Other cases of sickness prevailing and the health of the people is generally improving.)

The very distressing accident on the railroad resulting in the death of Mr. J. P. Macdonald, his friends were the occasion of profound regret among our people. Mr. Macdonald was well known and his friends and acquaintances are numerous.

The Division on the railroad which was temporarily established here has been removed back to Central City, and the freight traffic on the Williams Cove Company's switch near McHenry, which he had been fined at $100, and which he gave and was released from imprisonment.

Another Bold Institution.

We call attention to the published statement of the Bank of Hartford at the close of business June 30th. This statement shows a healthy condition of the bank, and the fact that the stockholders who get their semi-annual dividend of $4 per share out of the net earnings of the past six months.

This institution has paid to its stockholders the last four years TEN THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED DOLLARS in dividends and has FIVE THOUSAND AND DOLLARS clear of all expenses, undivided profits, and when we consider that two years of the four have been the worst in the history of the country, this is certainly a most remarkable showing and reflects great credit on the directors and management of the bank. This bank is solid as the rock of Gibraltar and justly merits the confidence the people have in it.

The Knights of Pythias.

One of the most prosperous of the new organizations of Hartford is the lodge of Knights of Pythias recently instituted here. The lodge now embraces in its membership most of the better class of the young men of the town and its interest is growing with each meeting. No one of the many benevolent orders of the country embraces so many splendid young men as the K. P. is. In every city and in almost every town in the country its representatives are found and no number of the order need be in trouble anywhere without finding a friend and brother to help him in time of need.

The new members in the United States alone more than 500,000 members made more than almost every young man. Rough River lodge will entertain at the court ball Saturday night next. Ice cream and other refreshments will be served. Only the members of the lodge and their invited friends will be present.

ARNOLD, KY.

July 3, 1904.—The hot harvest is on hands and the crop is much better than we expected.

Mr. Henshaw here is quite sick at this writing. Mr. Penola Daugherty is dangerously ill.

Mr. W. M. Luskman started to-day for the prohibition convention which meets at Elizabethtown to-morrow.

Mad dogs are much talked of here now. There have been two or three killed which were supposed to have been mad.

RIVER MILL.

The steamer Little Frank, a making regular trips from Ft. Smith, Ark. to here. It is prepared to carry both passengers and freight.

Mr. J. F. Hinder is erecting a side building near the mill, and will move his family here in a few days.

Mr. Zebulon, of near Phillips, was in town to-day.

Mr. Elmer and family, R. O. Smith and family, of Fordville, spent last Saturday and Sunday here visiting relatives.

Miss Maggie Moorman Fallville, Hancock county, and Annie Wilson, Hancock, have been visiting Mr. J. T. Moore the past week.

The singing at Mr. West's Sunday night was quite a success.

Mr. R. H. Moore is in Morgantown this week.

First Week Harvest.

Many farmers had and overwork or much strain on brain and body. The weather is quite hot and the crops are on the edge. The farmers are not yet out of the mud. The farmers are not yet out of the mud.

Mr. J. P. Hinder is erecting a side building near the mill, and will move his family here in a few days.

McHENRY, KY.

July 3, 1904.—Rev. Jas. Poy, of Perrygo, Ark., was called here by telegram the first of last week to see his sister, wife of Jas. P. Maddox, who was killed in the railroad accident, as related in last issue. Rev. Poy is also a half brother to the two Misses Tracy that were killed. He is a pleasant gentleman and was greatly shocked by the news of this accident. A prominent lawyer from Elizabethtown was here during the week taking evidence preliminary to a damage suit.

Mr. W. L. Williams has returned from Roanoke Springs, Ark. He says he feels that he has been greatly benefited by the hot baths and medical treatment while there.

Mr. Nalle D. Miller returned home last Thursday from a two weeks' visit among friends at Hartford and Bels. Her little son John has been very sick since her return and is at this time dangerously ill.

Mr. John B. Southard, of Prentiss, was in town on business last week.

W. O. Dunham, of Louisville, accompanied by his two children, Kate and Belle and Andrew, arrived here Friday. Miss Kate Belle and Andrew will remain here several days visiting relatives and friends.

Several members of Bescon Lodge, L. O. O. F., attended the Old Folks' gathering at Rockport last Saturday. A number of others also attended the picnic who seemed to like fellows and revellers to old.

Rev. J. T. Mitchell assisted Rev. B. Porter and J. G. Barclay in a private meeting at Rockport, Ky., during the past week.

The Executive Committee on Huntley School work for Ohio county met here last Friday evening. Fordville was chosen for the next County Convention to meet August 24 and 25th. Rev.

Only the Scars Remain.

"Among the many testimonials that I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, restoring the blood, etc.," writes Rev. J. H. Moore, of the James Smith Institute, "I have never seen one so good as the one I have used. I have used it on my wife, who was in the hospital for several years, and she is now as well as I am. I have used it on my children, and they are all well. I have used it on my friends, and they are all well. I have used it on my enemies, and they are all well.
